Special Reception— May 23

Join us in greeting our confirmands and honoring our volunteer Sunday School teachers. On Pentecost Sunday, May 23, the Coffee Hour will be a reception for our six confirmands, and for our over 40 leaders and shepherds in our BLAST Sunday School program. These leaders and shepherds have been instrumental in the faith journey of not only the six confirmands, but also in the lives of all of Zion's children.

NA Stewards Needed!

A sign-up sheet is located in the church office. Please sign up and spend a Friday evening supporting this program.

Zion's Mission Statement

Zion Lutheran's commitment is to glorify God by reaching out to our family and community to provide a Christian atmosphere through spiritual growth, learning and service. As a community of the people of God, the members of Zion Lutheran Church are called to welcome all people regardless of age, economic status, ethnic background, gender, physical or mental ability, race or sexual orientation. We affirm that in Christ, "there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female" (Galatians 3:28). Christ has made us one.

The Women of the ELCA will collect a special offering throughout May to forward to the national W/ELCA to assist women and children who live in poverty and other crisis situations. Blue-edged envelopes are included in your box for this purpose. If you don't have one, just use a pew envelope and mark it for Rachel's Day.

Use your values to guide financial decisions

Your values serve as an important foundation for how you manage your money. They're the things that are most important to you—for example, your faith, family, friends, health, education or giving back. Your values give you a rock-solid sense of who you are and what you believe in.

Your values come from experiences in life. They also drive your decisions and actions. For example, if you value your health, you may exercise daily. If you value learning, you may continue your education by attending classes.

Developing a clear and compelling list of your values makes it easier to choose how you want to use your time, talents and treasures.

When it comes to your money, you have three choices: share, save, or spend.

As a steward of your resources, having a guideline for how you use your money can be helpful.

What's more, your values can be a clear, consistent guide to who you are and what you want to become. Investing time and energy to define your values and then aligning your actions with your values is a powerful way to achieve your financial goals and live the life of your dreams.

For more information on how your values can help you achieve your financial goals, contact Catherine Gateman, CLU, FIC, Financial Consultant at 734-432-7777 ext. 103 or catherine.gateman@thrivent.com today, or visit thrivent.com.
